

Luxury champagne brand Dom Perignon is releasing a (relatively) limited number of bottles "in collaboration with" musician, actor and designer Lenny Kravitz.

As well as designing metallic labels for the wines, the singer has come up with a magnum gift box that turns into a candelabra (for €2500), and a bespoke table-bar that unfolds to reveal bottles of the champagne and glasses in an ice-bucket (available on request).

Meanwhile, the new Dom Perignon